Montana man arrested for possession of methamphetamine with intent to deliver

Mandan, N.D. – The Morton County Sheriff's Office (MCSO) arrested a 28-year-old male over the weekend for possession of methamphetamine with the intent to deliver, preventing arrest and several other charges.

Mikel Weeks of Wolf Point, Montana was arrested and taken to the Burleigh/Morton Detention Center after a search of his vehicle produced a large amount of methamphetamine, various drug paraphernalia, a bag of marijuana, THC wax, a scale and small plastic baggies. A DPMS AR-15 semiautomatic rifle, a revolver and over 150 rounds of ammunition were also found in the trunk of the vehicle.

At approximately 3:00 a.m. on May 25, a MCSO deputy observed a vehicle that had been parked at a gas station pump in New Salem for at least two hours. The deputy noticed drug paraphernalia inside the vehicle when observing from the window. Weeks denied having any weapons, drugs or alcohol inside his vehicle, and when the deputy attempted to detain Weeks, he resisted.

While the case remains under investigation, Weeks has been charged with the following:

1. Possession with the intent to sell/deliver – methamphetamine over 50 grams
2. Possession of drug paraphernalia – methamphetamine smoking device
3. Possession of drug paraphernalia – digital scale and plastic baggies
4. Possession of a controlled substance – THC wax
5. Possession of a controlled substance – marijuana
6. Possession of drug paraphernalia – marijuana smoking device
7. Resisting arrest
8. Possession of a concealed weapon
